United Alloy Inc. Breaks Ground on Expansion of Manufacturing Facility in Seguin, Texas

SEGUIN, TEXAS – United Alloy, Inc announced today that they are breaking ground on a nearly 110,000 square foot expansion of their existing manufacturing facility in Seguin, Texas. Headquartered in Janesville, Wisconsin, United Alloy, Inc. is a contract metal fabrication and powder coating company. United Alloy produces the highest quality leak-proof metal fuel tanks, hydraulic reservoirs, skids, frames, chassis, trailers, and complex weldments for an extensive list of long-term Fortune 500 OEM customers. United Alloy is ISO 9001 Certified and is also a recognized Woman/Minority Owned Business.

This expansion will include the latest automation for light sheet metal fabrication, powder coating, and assembly. The extra space will allow United Alloy to continue to grow its capacity fabricating and assembling sheet metal enclosures for large OEM customers. United Alloy also plans to dedicate space to launch an apprenticeship program that will allow it to train entry level welders, fabricators, painters, and assemblers. To learn more about United Alloy employment and apprenticeship opportunities please visit their website – www.unitedalloy.com or contact them at 830-549-5550.

In December of 2019, the City of Seguin and the Seguin Economic Development Corporation announced that United Alloy would be expanding to Seguin, Texas, with plans to construct a new state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in two phases on a 27-acre tract of land within the Rio Nogales Industrial Park. Phase 1 of United Alloy's expansion to Seguin was completed in December of 2020, representing an investment of more than $17 million. Today, United Alloy has more than 100 employees at their Seguin facility. Upon completion of Phase 2, United Alloy's total building footprint will be approximately 230,000 square feet and will represent a capital investment of more than $35 Million.

"We are thrilled that United Alloy is expanding their operations in Seguin, Texas. Even though they have only been a member of our business community for a short period of time, United Alloy has developed a tremendous reputation as a quality employer and are a top-notch corporate citizen. We are excited to watch United Alloy grow and look forward to working with them for years to come." said Josh Schneuker, Executive Director of the Seguin Economic Development Corporation.
